Working on one of his famous arrangements for his popular chorus is Don Wright; his wife Lillian, who produces the Thursday night program on the Trans-Canada network, looks on approvingly. The Don Wright Chorus of 7 women and 7 men is an "amateur" group ... but only in the sense that none of them earn their living completely from singing. In the seven years they have been entertaining listeners from coast to coast with their imaginative renditions of popular tunes and light classics, they have set a level of entertainment that is well above "professional" standards.

THE RAYMOND RECORDER

Let's Eat

BY
IDA BAILEY ALLEN

"When we attempt to solve the high cost of eating, we must also consider the finished product—the meal itself. It must taste good. We must prepare it to save full nutritive values, and we must make the best use of whatever fuel we use."
"In many homes the fuel bill is unnecessarily high because the oven is used to cook only one food at a time," observed the chef. "In France fuel is scarce and expensive. That is why the French homemaker, when she cooks a roast, puts peeled potatoes or other vegetables to cook around the meat. She often bakes a compote of fruit in a casserole for the next day, and ends up with a grand finale by baking a soufflé for dessert."

All measurements are level.
Recipes serves four.

Baked Pork Chops with Apple Rings

Rub 4 large pork chops all over with 1 tsp. sage, 1 tsp. salt and ¼ tsp. pepper. Roll in fine dry bread crumbs. Place in an oiled pan. Bake 25 min. in a hot oven, 425 degrees F. Bake the apple rings in the same oven.

Baked Apple Rings

Core, peel and slice 2 large tart apples into rings ¼ inch thick. Spread with a mixture of 1½ tsp. butter or margarine and 1½ tsp. sugar creamed together. Place in an oiled pan. Add hot water to the depth of ¼ inch. Bake about 20 min. in a hot oven, 425 degrees F., or until the rings are soft and brown on top.

Tutti-Frutti Pie

An excellent way to use odds and ends of fruits.

Make one recipe pie pastry, or use a mix. Combine 3 c. mixed frozen, cooked or canned fruits (any kind). Add ¼ c. sugar, 1 tsp. cinnamon and ¼ tsp. nutmeg. Transfer to an oiled or margarine deep pie plate. Cover with piecrust rolled to a scant ¼ inch thickness. Press down around the edges. Slash the top in 3 places. Brush with milk. Dust with 1 tsp. granulated sugar. Bake 35 min. in a moderately hot oven, 375 degrees F., or until browned. Serve warm or cold, plain or with cream or ice cream.

Suggestion From the Chef

Oddsments of piecrust are very useful. This chef often makes a piecrust foundation for hors d'oeuvres. In this case, roll left-over piecrust thin. Cut in finger-lengths, squares or rounds; bake, cool, and spread with any canape topping.
